

The New Home

Written and Illustrated by

Akhila

Once upon a time there was a village and in the village was a girl and her name was Lisa. She loved to explore the village and sell her mom's baked goods and knitting supplies in the market. One day she was wandering off from the market and then she realized she walked far from village market, and she was lost! Lisa stopped to look around; suddenly, she couldn't recognize her surroundings. It turns out Lisa was in a big oak forest. Suddenly, she felt a cool drop of water on her skin and then it started to rain! Lisa saw a cave and went in, she saw some light inside the cave, so she walked in, and it was filled with beautiful shining gems of all colors! She gasped and was amazed at the beauty of the gems. The rain finally stopped! She skipped outside and saw an orange tree. Seeing the oranges made her hungry. She saw a wood stump and she got on to it and plucked an orange. Before she ate the drenched juicy orange, she washed the orange in a nearby river. YUMMM, she exclaimed. Then she saw more and more oranges and orange trees! She remembered that she had a basket, she put some oranges in her basket. She was still sad she wasn't home, but it was getting dark so she decided to make the cave her home! Lisa pushed the gems to one corner and then she saw a bunch of sticks in a bundle, and she made a campfire in the cave. Anyways, it was getting dark and very cold; so, she knitted a blanket with her cloth and knitting needles her mom taught her how to knit so she knitted a blanket for her to sleep with, she also needed a pillow. Lisa had spare cloth so she took the cloth and then she folded the cloth and stuffed cold grass with it. This was her new life she thought then she fell asleep. The next day Lisa woke up fresh she quickly grabbed a few gems that were loose from the walls of the cave and stuffed them in the string basket along with the oranges.

Back in the village Lisa's friend Amy was running to her house to see her she was wondering where she had been. Then her mom opened the door, she asked "Hi Mrs. Tyler is Lisa home?" "No, I really don't know where she is I am so worried, I went to look for her in the village, and in the other Anglin forests. Here, take this map, she should not have gone far she knows that." Her mother explained. "Thank you.” Amy replied. She went searching for Lisa in the forest and stumbled upon a cave. So, she went inside and surprisingly she found Lisa inside the cave. She was so happy and Lisa was so relieved to see her.

Lisa told her all about her adventure Amy gasped, then she took the map and showed her the way home. When they got home her mom was so happy to see her then Lisa continued to do her daily chores with her friend Amy.... But this is not the end.... The next day Lisa ran to Amy house and rang the doorbell SURPRISE!!!!!! What. What! You remembered my birthday! Yes of course, thank you so much, Amy replied to my mom has been hiding something from me for a long time when she bought it at the market, she put it in the kitchen fridge on the top shelf I still don't know what it is? Well, who cares all that matters is you are turning seven! Yeah, thanks Amy replied BUMP! BUMP! BUMP! What was that Lisa asked, oh it's my mom coming down Amy replied, SURPRISE AMY! Mom! You remembered my birthday! yes, Lisa and I planned something fun go outside you will see, her Mom said ok, wait close your eyes Lisa said, umm ok Amy said, Then.... SURPRISE everyone had planned to celebrate Amy birthday. Let's get this party started! They invited everyone in the village. Including Amy's sister Amiah. Everyone had a piece of cake and a piece of fun! There was pin the tail on the pony there were rope war, and Amy got so many gifts, Lisa was upset because she didn't have a present for Amy so she gave the basket of oranges and shining gems to Amy as a gift. When she opened it she saw the juicy oranges, and the colorful gems, Amy ran to Lisa “Is this your present?” Amy asked. “Yes.” Lisa said quietly with her head draping down. “It is the best present ever!” Amy exclaimed while jumping excitedly. Lisas head came up slowly. Amy grabbed her and hugged her tightly. It was best day ever!

