

Kidnapped A Story about a Kidnapping Trail

Table of Contents:

| | |
|-------------|----------------------------|
| Page 1..... | Chapter one |
| Page 2..... | Chapter two |
| Page 3..... | Chapter three through four |
| Page 5..... | Chapter five through seven |
| Page 8..... | About author |

On a nice and sunny day, there was a little girl named Anna. Anna lived in Alabama with her two sisters, mom, and dad. Anna loved her family, and she was very happy because her mom was going to have a baby boy. While Anna was in school, she learned new things. At recess Anna talked to her best friend Alexa. "Hi Alexa! I can come over to your house today if it is fine with your mom." Anna said. "Sorry but you can't." Said Alexa crying. "Why are you crying?" Said Anna. "My brother got kidnapped and it's just hard."

Anna was Shocked when she heard the news and felt sad for her best friend. Then the bell rang to go home. Anna walked home. When she got home, she watched some tv and played soccer. Then it was time for bed, and everyone went to sleep. Then someone broke into their house! No one knew. Then the robbers secretly went into Anna's room and put her in a brown sack and went off in a car.

Anna woke up screaming trying to get out, but it was no use. The robbers put Anna inside the trunk of the car. There was another brown sack in the trunk and was Alexa's brother! Anna gave him a hug and asked, "Did you get kidnapped too?" Alex said, "Yes I did, and I am scared." "Don't worry we will find a way out of this mess." Said Anna. At Anna's house, everyone found out that she was gone.

In Anna's house, everyone was wondering where Anna was. They asked neighbors, but they did not know where she was. Anna's dad called the police and started the investigation. Meanwhile, the car came to a strange abandoned house. The kidnapper took Alex and Anna to a room and chained their hands to the wall. Luckily Alex had hand lotion. They rubbed their hands and they slipped out of the chains!

They were finding a way out of the house. They opened a window and jumped out. Luckily it wasn't too high, so they were okay. Police officers looked everywhere but no such luck for them. A strange car came up to them and the lady asked, "What are you doing here?" They said, "We got kidnapped." Then the lady called the police and Anna and Alex got home. When their parents saw them, they were so happy and cried. Both two friends have been careful and live a nice life.

The End.

About the author

Sarah is not an author yet, but she might become one someday. She was born on October 7, 2009 in Africa. She then moved to America and started writing, but wasn't as good. But now she is in third grade and doing the The Strikewriters Contest.

