

The Duck Family

By: Mazzy F. and Alexa G.

You've all heard about the ugly duckling, but have you ever heard about his family? Well here is his kid's, point of view of the story. Hi I'm Levi this is my side of the story of the ugly duckling.

It's not the easiest growing up having a dad known as the ugly duckling. But, what you don't know is that when an ugly duckling grows up to be a beautiful swan, which translates to a father that is always away from home and busy with his superstar, modeling career! Yep, my dad is famous!

My dad was always gone and my genes dictated I would also have the experience of the "awkward/ugly duckling" stage. [Oh, fun times!] At school they called me the uck duck, kids can be so mean sometimes. This kid named ash calls me FOUL, I don't really get that name but he is annoying. My only friend is Bellamy he is wonderful but my mom says he is not the sharpest knife in the kitchen. He's the only kid that doesn't call me uck duck he's my best friend and every day we swim after school. Our friendship is weird we both hate school but love computers.

Any way I go to U.D.E. which means Ugly Duckling Elementary. Well that's all about my dad's story now it's moms turn to take this story away.

I'm a geek which means I'm not at all like my dad, sadly because he is my role model. I can read books with more than 400 pages in ten minutes but my dad on the other hand he can read books with 30 pages or less and that's it. [Terrible bedtime stories by the way.] I love him but we have nothing in common except our awkward. My mom and I have more things in common than my dad and I. we are both geeks to and she loves bedtime coding pages we specially love to code on the weekends together. And we both own glasses mine are red and orange, and my moms are blue and grey. My mom had a much better childhood than my dad. She was a beautiful swan and had an education and became one of the smartest kids in her school, which was amazing. On that hand we are not alike, neither the fact that she had many friends. Besides that we are very alike and are a pretty normal family.