

Dream Come True

By Gabe G.

One day when I got home from school, my mom said, “we’re going to your grandma’s house!” When I heard those words, my mind blew up! It was my dream to go to my grandma’s house. Shortly after hearing the news, I ran up to my room and began packing. I threw all the items that I needed; my pajamas, my tablet and charger, and of course my toothbrush. Running down the stairs, I saw that I was the first one ready. “Come on already, let’s go!”, I yelled up the stairs. “We are coming Gabe, calm down”, said his mother. How can I calm down when I am so excited?

Soon we were all in the car. Now I just had a 5-hour car ride between my grandma and me. For entertainment we watched movies, drew, and played I-spy. My favorite was playing car karaoke. I had so much fun that it passed the time so fast. Soon we were pulling into her driveway. “WE ARE HERE!”, I screamed to everyone. “Josh, you are being too loud”, laughed my dad. I ran up her front steps to knock on the door, but she beat me to it by opening it and grabbing me into a huge hug. We get to stay here for three days.

The first day was amazing. We played catch at the park, went to the arcade and played games, and went to the zoo. The second day was just as busy. We went swimming in the river, bowling, and ended with playing mini golf. My grandma beat me, but I might have let her. Shh don’t tell her. By the last day, I was tired. We had a BBQ ,we played bingo, and bean bag toss.

Mom and dad told me that we were leaving the next day. I was sad to go, but I had school since tomorrow was Monday and I had school. We said our goodbyes and got in the car and left to go home. I was so tired that I fell asleep right away and didn't wake up until we got home. I love spending time with grandma and can't wait until I get to go back.
