

The Boy Who Nobody Believed In by Madison G.

A long long time ago there was this boy named Chris. When Chris was born, he had cleft palate. His Dad thought he looked well not normal which he didn't, but Chris thought he looked like everyone else. When Chris walked with his Mom and Dad everyone stared.

Like a lot of people well maybe because they live in New York . Chris's dad had a huge business and ever since Chris was born Chris's Dad had been losing business . Until one day Chris's Dad finally decided he was going to shut down his business. When he went home he told Chris this is all your fault. Chris started crying then years went by and then one day Chris found this flyer and it said soccer for twenty five dollars. And he ran as fast as he could home to show his mom and dad he finally got home and showed his mom first. His Mom said that she thinks he would be a great soccer player

Then he showed his dad and he was still mad so he told Chris you know what just stop Just know that you can't play soccer just stop !!!! Then Chris ran in sadness to his room Then he waited and his Mom went to the door and said will you please open up the door So Chris opened the door and then they both sat on the bed and Chris's mom held him tight and rocked him back and forth . And then whispered to Chris, "I believe in you" And then Chris and his Mom move out of the house where Chris's dad lived. And then Years and years went by and finally when Chris turned nineteen he was already a professional soccer player but over those years his mom had passed . And Chris was not happy about that, but every day since his Mom had passed away, he would get down on his knees and say look Mom I'm finally here where I have wanted to be for so long and I am going to make you proud Mom. Chris will never forget the day that his Dad had called. Chris was shocked when Chris's Dad called he said son I'm sorry for The thing I said that was a long time ago can you forgive me chris said no why suddenly you wanna be apart of my life . Chris's Dad was speechless he didn't know what to say And then chris said you treated me like I was some sort of freak . and then chris's dad had hung up . And then on Chris lived his life very happy and he played soccer for about twelve years he was a legend and then he passed away. When he was ninety two years old everyone still remembers him to this very day.
